

KERN NOT RECEIVED WITH OPEN ARMS

Gets a Cold Deal in Milwaukee as Result of Factional Fight.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Aug. 22.—The row between the Rose Democrats of Milwaukee and the anti-Rose faction, which includes many of the State leaders outside of Milwaukee, resulted in the snubbing of Vice Presidential Candidate Kern on his visit here.

When Mr. Kern arose the morning after his speech before the Rose clubs there was no one at his hotel to say good morning, no one to escort him to the station and he was forced to inquire the way from a bell boy and take a carriage alone.

It had been expected that the Rose Club's picnic, with Mr. Kern as the leading attraction, would be attended by 25,000 persons. The Rose Democrats, however, resented the apparent indifference of the anti-Rose men, and the anti-Rose Democrats naturally were not particularly anxious to have the Rose Club picnic a success.

The result was that Mr. Kern spoke to an audience of 2,500, and now the Rose and anti-Rose Democrats are loud in denunciation of each other for allowing the Vice Presidential candidate to receive such a frost in a State that the nation's Democracy counts as doubtful.

BETTER CONDITIONS SHOWN BY REPORTS

Statement Prepared by Acting Comptroller Kane Shows Improvement Over Country.

T. P. Kane, Acting Comptroller of the Currency, yesterday cast his eye over the national bank reports, made in answer to the "call" of July 15, made a few marks on a sheet of paper, and then started to predict that prosperity is hopping down the pike, gaining speed with every hop.

Individual deposits have increased since the call of December, 1907, some 4.73 per cent, or, in dollars, $197,677,490.85; loans and discounts have increased $30,328,435.92, or .56 per cent; cash in banks, $188,294,012.93, or .28 per cent. The volume of business done by banks has increased $206,076,278.72, or 3.64 per cent; the liabilities of the banks for Government deposits for this period has decreased $104,640,188.72.

The statement prepared by Mr. Kane also shows that quite a number of banking institutions which were placed in the hands of committees of creditors that they might pass the crisis last fall are now out of the financial woods, and doing business once more on a firm basis. For these many reasons he sees good times coming.

MAY TALK IN PARIS BY WIRELESS PHONE

De Forest Also Plans to Establish Wireless Telegraph Communication With France.

NEW YORK, Aug. 22.—Direct communication with Paris by wireless telephone, as well as by wireless telegraph, is planned by Dr. Lee De Forest, head of the Radio Telephone Company, who has entered into a contract with the owners of the Metropolitan building, at Fourth avenue and Twenty-third street, to construct a wireless station. This will communicate with another located in the Eiffel Tower in Paris.

The first wireless telegraph to connect directly with a European city will also be operated from the top of the Metropolitan building. The height of the Metropolitan and Eiffel Towers will permit the sending of messages from their highest points farther than any that have heretofore been sent from poles. The apparatus for the transmission of both telephone and telegraph messages from this city to Paris is now complete and it only remains for the tower to be finished before communication will be begun.

PRETTY GIRL SINGS TO HELP OLD BEGGAR

Jersey Maid Goes to Assistance of Unsuccessful Seeker for Alms on Street.

NEW YORK, Aug. 22.—As a result of her disregard for conventions by singing in the street to aid an aged crippled veteran seeking alms, Miss Charlotte Cole, of Jersey City, is today being complimented by her friends.

Miss Cole stood in the doorway of her father's florist shop and sang the aged man, wearing a faded Grand Army uniform, supported on crutches as he played a battered violin, in need of tuning.

When she questioned him the veteran told her he had not secured a penny all day, and was disheartened. He said that the only times he could play were old time ballads, which no one wanted to listen to.

"You play 'I'll Give a Penny for Your Thoughts,'" said Miss Cole, "and we'll see if the people don't remember that there is such a thing as charity." The aged man played the introductory bars, and Miss Cole, in a high soprano, sang the song. A crowd gathered at once, and many of them, recognizing Miss Cole, demanded an encore. The young woman sang one more old-time song, after which she passed around the hat or the aged musician. Pennies, nickels, dimes, and quarters were poured in, and when the hat was returned to the veteran by Miss Cole the collection contained enough to keep him from having to play on the street for many days.

GIANT OAK TREE FULL OF HONEY

NEW YORK, Aug. 22.—In cutting down a 200-year-old oak tree on the Tiemann estate in Harlem, once the home of former Mayor Tiemann, yesterday, workmen let flow a flood of honey that bees, once kept by employees of the late mayor, had industriously stored. When the children of the neighborhood heard of it they flocked to the scene with pitchers, pails, and all sorts of receptacles, but, before they had secured much of it, the workmen had filled their dinner pails and a grocer of the neighborhood bought practically all the supply.

Today the children haunted the estate, asking the workmen to cut down another tree, but no more honey was found.

MINISTER SENDS POST CARD SERMON

BANGOR, Pa., Aug. 22.—Rev. Seth Russell Doty, of the Walnut Street

Presbyterian Church, Path, Pa., who is spending his vacation at Gettysburg, each week sends to each member of the congregation a sermon printed on a postal card. The sermons are short. This novel idea has caused much favorable comment.

SHEATH GOWN GIRL BARRED IN ALTOONA

ALTOONA, Pa., Aug. 22.—The sheath gown girl had better steer clear of Altoona. Mayor Hoyer and Chief of Police Clark have put the ban on the latest costume novelty for females. When a local theater manager asked permission to introduce the split skirt in his playhouse the mayor and the chief decided it was immoral and violated one of the city laws.

BETTER THAN BEAUTY.

"Yes, she advertised for a husband and got 2,700 replies." "Gracious! She must have advertised herself as very beautiful." "No, she didn't. She just said she had $700 in the bank."—Exchange.

WHAT HE NEEDED.

"My eyes bother me a good deal, doctor. Do you think I need stronger glasses?" "No; I think you need weaker glasses—and fewer." was the blunt answer.—Chicago Journal.

Doctors of Two Nations Agree as to the Benefits of Beer

American Doctor: To what, Doctor, do you attribute the success of the German people?

German Doctor: To one thing, my dear Doctor, just to their temperance.

American: But Doctor, we think of your people as heavy drinkers.

German: Ah, but the drink is beer. While other nationalities have their wines, whiskies and vodkas containing large percentages of alcohol and very little food value, we stick to our beer with its nourishing barley and tonical hops and only 3 1/2% alcohol.

American: You say only 3 1/2% alcohol as though that ingredient were not beneficial.

German: I do not mean it in that sense. We find alcohol has a food and stimulating value when the proportion is not too great. The danger is in overstimulation, impossible when the percentage is so small as in beer.

American: Perhaps the superiority of your people may be due to the superiority of your beers.

German: Don't mistake there. We are strong admirers of your Schlitz Beer. It evidences the care used in its brewing. Its full rich flavor brings to you the taste of the barley and the hops, so often lost in the different processes. It has the sparkle and life, too, due to a perfect yeast. The freedom from germs shows careful sterilization. The fact that it does not cause biliousness proves its perfect lagering, or aging as you say.

American: That is splendid, Doctor. I have been using Schlitz Beer in my practice, prescribing it where my patients needed an easily digested food which has some tonic value. Especially beneficial, I have found it, after surgical operations where the stomach refused to retain other food. Also in cases where the patient was not inclined to drink enough to flush the system of its waste.

German: When you Americans generally appreciate these benefits of beer, then may the Fatherland take heed or your country will outstrip us as we have our neighbors; but good progress to you and the temperance work of Schlitz, The Beer That Made Milwaukee Famous.
